Landscape (Colorker)

A photograph of a bathroom scene. In the foreground, a white bathtub is visible. On the edge of the tub, there is a stack of three white towels, a bottle of yellow liquid soap, a tube of green cream, three lit white candles, a smartphone, and a pair of white earbuds. To the right, a framed picture of a lavender field is leaning against the wall. The background wall is covered in large, light-colored rectangular tiles. A silver arched mirror is partially visible on the right side.
