Alevera (Gracia Ceramica)

A photograph of a bathroom vanity. The wall is covered in light beige tiles. A decorative tile band with a gold and brown floral pattern runs horizontally across the wall. Two white rectangular mirrors are mounted on the wall, each held by a black metal bracket. Below the mirrors are two white rectangular sinks. The vanity is set on a light brown marble countertop. Below the countertop, a metal towel rack holds a white towel. A small table holds a tissue box and several rolled-up white towels. The overall aesthetic is clean and modern with a touch of classic decor.
